

641—99.3(144) Delayed birth registration—after one year. All births registered one year or more after the date of birth are to be registered on a special “delayed certificate of birth” form adopted by the state registrar.